FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Distinguished Business Leaders will Swing for Education and Join Reception Guest NFL Great and Co-host of Comcast SportsNet's Show Brian Mitchell on Saturday, June 6th at the Blue Mash Golf Course

Maryland - Washington D.C. – The Friendship Association Education Assistance, Inc. (FAEA) will swing for education during its 10th Anniversary Charity Golf Outing on Saturday, June 6, 2015, at the Blue Mash Golf Course in Laytonsville Maryland. One hundred and twenty golfers are expected to attend, among them business owners, young and upper-level professionals.

FAEA has created a compelling legacy of success in addressing the educational needs of underprivileged children in North America and in Africa for 18 years by providing children with school supplies, mentorships, and scholarships as well as funding of materials for schools' renovations, furniture, equipment, and science laboratories. FAEA is able to fund these projects in part through our annual events and financial contributions from supporters. The 10th Anniversary Charity Golf Outing will allow FAEA volunteers to provide schools supplies and scholarships to underprivileged children attending public schools in Washington D.C., Maryland and financial support for the renovation of Christ Redeemer College Technical building in Amesi, Nigeria.

WHAT: The FAEA 10th Anniversary Charity Golf Outing. All golfers will receive lunch and dinner plus an invitation to participate in different contests including a raffle. FAEA presents this event with sponsors: Hughes An Echostar Company, Nigerian Friendship Association, Lexus of Silver Spring, Satellite 2000 Systems International Corporation, Capital Primary Care Inc, Black Enterprise, Max James State Farm, and Visual Eyes among others.

WHERE: Blue Mash Golf Course, 5821 Olney Laytonsville Road, Laytonsville, Maryland 20882

WHEN: Saturday, June 6, 2015 from 12:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. (Shotgun start at 1:30 p.m.)
